we believe we are called to be part of God's family, and so we welcome you with open arms. As followers of Christ, who unites us through unconditional grace, we seek to mirror God's love through our lives and in this community.

Here you are welcome, whether Christian, Jewish, Buddhist, Muslim, Hindu, Sikh, a member of another religious community, an agnostic or seeking a spiritual home.

Here you are welcome, whatever your sexual orientation or gender identity.

Here you are welcome, whether a student or teacher, a Ph.D or entering kindergarten; whether Black, LatinX, White, Asian, Native American, or you claim multiple ethnicities.

Here you are welcome, whatever your political allegiances, your social status, your income level or your age; no matter your talents, abilities or disabilities, your address or your past.

Here you are welcome, to University Lutheran and to our community of imperfect people, loved by God.

Welcome

Prayer of Confession

L: Let us pray to God to forgive our sins, as we put our hope in Christ's redeeming love.

L: God of life, C: do not darken your light to us.

L: God of life, C: do not limit your joy in us.

L: God of life, C: do not shut your door to us.

ALL: God of life, do not refuse us your mercy.

L: O God of life, eternity cannot hold you, nor can our little words catch the magnificence of your kindness. Yet in the space of our small hearts and in silence you can come close and repair us.

(silence for reflection)

L: O God of life, grant us your forgiveness

C: for our careless thoughts, for our thoughtless deeds, for our empty speech and the words with which we wounded.

L: O God of life, grant us your forgiveness,

C: for our false desires, for our hateful actions, for our wastefulness, and for all we left untended.

L: O loving Christ, hanged on a tree yet risen in the morning, scatter the sin from our souls as the mist from the hills; begin what we do, inform what we say, redeem who we are.

ALL: IN YOU WE PLACE OUR HOPE, OUR GREAT HOPE, OUR LIVING HOPE, THIS DAY AND EVERMORE. AMEN.
