

Season of Lent ✚

March 2020

At University Lutheran Church

we believe we are called to be part of God's family, and so we welcome you with open arms. As followers of Christ, who unites us through unconditional grace, we seek to mirror God's love through our lives and in this community.

Here you are welcome, whether Christian, Jewish, Buddhist, Muslim, Hindu, Sikh, a member of another religious community, an agnostic or seeking a spiritual home.

Here you are welcome, whatever your sexual orientation or gender identity.

Here you are welcome, whether a student or teacher, a Ph.D or entering kindergarten; whether Black, LatinX, White, Asian, Native American, or you claim multiple ethnicities.

Here you are welcome, whatever your political allegiances, your social status, your income level or your age; no matter your talents, abilities or disabilities, your address or your past.

Here you are welcome, to University Lutheran and to our community of imperfect people, loved by God.

Welcome

Confession

L: Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✚ one God,
who is present, who gives life,
who calls into existence the things that do not exist.

C: Amen.

L: If you were to keep watch over sins, O Lord, who could stand? Yet with you is forgiveness, and so we confess.

Silence is kept for reflection.

L: Gracious God,

C: have mercy on us. We confess that we have turned away from you, knowingly and unknowingly. We have wandered from your resurrection life. We have strayed from your love for all people. Turn us back to you, O God. Give us new hearts and right spirits, that we may find what is pleasing to you and dwell in your house forever. Amen.

L: Receive good news: God turns to you in love.
“I will put my spirit in you, and you shall live,”
says our God. All your sin is forgiven in the name of † Jesus Christ,
who is the free and abounding gift of God’s grace for you.

C: Amen.
